Individual Contributor – Pathfinder Coaching

Pathfinder is for you if you are an individual contributor, team lead or supervisor. Coaching will focus on where you want to go from here, where would you best feel a sense of fit and success. You will look at various roles and/or settings that are best for you in your corporation or industry, finding where you would be most successful and fulfilled. Assessments may be used to help you discover how to be effective or fulfilled in your present or preferred role.

12 one-hour sessions	Member: $1500	Non-member: $1700
6 one-hour sessions	Member: $745	Non-member: $830
3 one-hour sessions	Member: $405	Non-member: $450

Manager/Leader - Leadership Coaching

The emphasis is on how to manage and lead at different levels or in different settings/types of teams, organizations and industries. Coaching will focus on your particular strengths and challenges, how best to lead and manage in the position you hold today, and what skills and talents to develop in order to meet future assignments or challenges. Assessments that determine your leadership strengths and development areas may be utilized to build your leadership effectiveness.
